PERSONAL TUTOR FOR STUDENTS

Learning a new language isn't easy. You have to memorize thousands of words. And, looking up words in cumbersome language dictionaries takes loads of time.

But, with this incredible electronic translator you (or your kids) can lop off hours of study time. Let me prove it to you.

Look up the word 'time' in your English/foreign language dictionary. While you're

En>nurse(n)
Sp>enfermera, (f)

En>nurse(n)
Fr>infirmière, (f)

En>nurse(n)
Ge>Krankenschwester→

En>nurse(n)
It>infermiera, (f)

With 62,500 different words in five different languages, you'll wield incredible word power. Just look at all the different ways you can say 'nurse'.

doing that, I'll use the translator.

I simply type in 'time' once. Then I touch FRE (for French) and the word 'temps' instantly appears on the 2-line, 40-character ultra-sharp dot-matrix LCD display.

Then I touch GER (for German) and see 'zeit' . . . I touch SPA (for Spanish) and 'tiempo' emerges . . . and I touch ITA (for Italian) and watch 'tempo' appear.

It just took me less than 10 seconds to look up the word 'time' IN FOUR DIFFERENT LANGUAGES. Wow!

Forget spending hours looking up words in foreign language dictionaries. And, forget the language barrier when traveling in foreign countries. Now just touch a button and watch the translation or phrase you want appear instantly.

But, when I used my son's Spanish/English dictionary to look up the same word, it took me over a minute just to find it. And, that's just one language, not four.

NOTE: Saving one minute might not sound like a lot. But, if you have to look up 30 or 40 words, it really adds up. That's 5 minutes versus 30 minutes. Imagine how much more you or your kids could accomplish and learn in an extra 25 minutes.

Of course, you can translate from another language to English just as fast.

And, if you accidentally misspell a word, a question mark will flash onto the display along with a suggested word. You can translate the suggested word or touch a button to scroll alphabetically through the memory till you find the word you want.

The scroll function is great for quizzing yourself, too. Just cover the English translation with your forefinger and you'll quickly build up an impressive vocabulary.

Now you'll have all the power of 62,500 foreign language flash cards that you can review anytime and anywhere. Plus, if your kids are anything like mine, they'll have fun educating themselves by challenging each other with translations. It's fun.
